Gloria Golf Hotel - Antalya / Turkey

International Congress on Oncological Sciences

Dear Colleague,

On behalf of the Turkish Medical Oncology Society, it is our pleasure to invite you to join the ‘International Congress on Oncological Sciences - ICONS’ which will be held on September 27 - October 1, 2017 in Antalya, Turkey.

ICONS aims to increase the collaboration, educational activities for young fellows and increase the collaborative scientific production in the region. Moreover, the format of the meeting is designed to ensure not only a highly educational experience but also, provide ample networking and experience exchange opportunities.

This congress will be an invaluable opportunity for the attending oncologists on scientific grounds and for developing future ties in the region. From this perspective the participation of oncologists from our neighbouring countries is also very important.

We are looking forward to welcoming you to the “International Congress on Oncological Sciences” in Turkey.

Kindly regards,

Serdar Turhal, MD.
